Seller's invoices shall be accompanied by copies of the shipping documents, by lien waivers, and by any other documents requested by Buyer in order for Buyer to secure payment from the Owner for Seller's Goods. The receipt by Buyer of payment from the Owner of the project for the Goods shall be a condition precedent to Seller's right to receive payment for the Goods.

6. Third Party Claims: Seller agrees to hold harmless, indemnify, and defend Buyer from and against any liability, loss, damage, cost or expense (including attorneys fees) which Buyer may suffer from any claim, demand, actions, suit or cause of action made against it due to Seller's negligent or willful actions and/or Seller's failure to provide Goods in conformance with the requirements of this P.O.

10. Changes: Buyer may make changes to this P.O., including changes to quantities, specifications, and/or scheduling. Such changes shall be stated in writing and delivered to the attention of the Seller. Seller shall proceed with any such changes, and shall be entitled to an equitable adjustment to the price and time of delivery with respect to such changes. Seller shall notify Buyer in writing of any proposed equitable adjustment within ten days of receipt of Buyer's change direction.

11. Claims: All claims by Seller for an increase in the Contract Price or the Contract Time shall be made in writing to the Buyer within seven (7) Calendar Days after the occurrence of the event giving rise to such claim. Compliance by the Seller with this provision is essential in order for Buyer to make any related claim to the Owner in a timely fashion. If the Seller fails to timely present a claim in accordance with this paragraph, then the claim shall be deemed to be waived.

12. Termination: Buyer may terminate this P.O. for convenience at any time, in which case Seller shall be entitled to receive as Seller's sole and exclusive remedy Seller's actual out of pocket costs in performing its obligations pursuant to this P.O. prior to receipt of the termination notice, plus a mark-up of ten percent, less any amounts previously paid by Buyer.

If the Contract Price established in the Agreement does not take into account a sales tax exemption which is provided after execution of this Agreement, an equitable adjustment of the Contract Price shall be made to reflect the application of such a sales tax exemption.

17. The Goods shall include from Seller perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free licenses to practice and use any intellectual property, including, without limitation, any software, embedded in the Goods. At the request of Buyer, Seller shall provide such documentation as reasonably required by Owner to evidence such licenses. This excludes any software that Owner may be required to license directly from third parties.

Seller agrees to inspections by Buyer to determine compliance with safety, health, and environmental standards. Seller acknowledges that Buyer's right to inspect shall not in any way relieve Seller of its obligations. If at any time, Seller violates OSHA standards or in the opinion of Buyer, performs its work in an unsafe manner or otherwise not in compliance with Buyer's Safety Program, Buyer may either require Seller to immediately cease work until the unsafe practice is corrected, or provide the required safety measures at Seller's cost.
