Coil announces new director of facilities management

COLUMBIA, MO (October 13, 2022) – Coil Construction is pleased to announce a new director of facilities management.

Jason Morgan joins Coil as the director of facilities management. At Coil, he oversees the small projects division, as well as acting as director of facilities management. He focuses on warranty work and recurring maintenance for Coil projects, as well as things like remodels, equipment additions and replacements, and paving.

Prior to joining the Coil team, Jason served as the assistant vice president for facilities management at Central Bank. He also worked in facilities management at the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Jason holds a bachelor's of science degree in business administration from the University of Missouri-Columbia and a master's of business administration from Columbia College.

Established in 1975, Coil Construction specializes in institutional, retail, professional, industrial, and healthcare construction throughout the Midwest.
